

Delta Children’s Museum & the Greenville Arts Council’s
Whole School Projects for GPS - To attend Teachers must do 3 things:

- (1) Call E. E. Bass and make a reservation at 332-2246
- (2) Arrange for a Purchase Order # to gain admission to the project
- (3) Arrange bus transportation

Princess Thimbelina

“Princess Thimbelina” by Bits ‘N Pieces Puppet Theater on Tuesday, October 6, 2015 at 9 am in E.E. Bass Auditorium. This Hans Christian Anderson classic fairy tale follows a little girl, Thimbelina, no bigger than your thumb through an adventure along with her friends Mumford Mole, the Frog, and Angus the Bird. Bits ‘N Pieces puppet theater, known for its giant 9 ft tall puppets, is one of the best puppet companies in America. They tour nationally as well as internationally. A preview of the show can be found on www.puppetworld.com 55 min show is appropriate for Pre K- 2nd grade.

An Ire-ish Tale

“An Ire-ish Tale” by Wood and Strings Theatre on Tuesday, January 26, 2016 at 9 am & 10:30 am in E.E. Bass Auditorium. In a wild romp and stomp during their “elfin visit, two silly people show how three wishes in the wrong hands can create hilarious havoc. Be sure to keep a firm grip on your gold and a sharp eye out for the “Wee Folk!” Using traditional stick and string puppets, the puppeteers, produce a delightful show. A preview of the show can be seen at www.woodandstrings.net or check a video out on YouTube. 50 min show, appropriate for Pre K – 5th.

Junie B Jones, The Musical

“Junie B. Jones, The Musical” by Memphis based Playhouse on the Square on Tuesday, May 10, 2016 at 9 am & 10:30 am in E. E. Bass Auditorium. Based on the series of best-selling books, this professional theater company tells the story of Junie B. Jones - a fast-paced musical about new friends, sugar cookies, an annual kickball tournament, and other first-grade triumphs and tribulations. A preview can be found at www.playhouseonthesquare.org/education 50 minute show. Pre K - 5th grade.